DATED THIS, THE 22ND DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2007.

O R D E R

Raman, J.

This is a petition seeking review of the judgment in C.R.P. 2740/1999. This Court dismissed the civil revision petition for the reasons stated therein. Since there is a concluded judgment between the parties, it was found that it cannot be re-opened. The review has been filed on the premise that out of 13.26 acres which was outstanding in tenancy with Paru, only 5.24 acres were excluded from the account of the petitioner's brother K.P. Velayudhan and according to the petitioner, the entire balance extent were liable to be excluded from his account as against which only 1/3rd is allowed by the Taluk Land Board. In spite of the fact that repeated opportunities were given, no materials were placed to substantiate this contention. As such there is no error apparent on the face of record. The review is liable to be dismissed.

2. However, learned counsel submits that there is some arithmetical mistake in calculating the extent while the order impugned was passed by the Taluk Land Board. If so, nothing prevents him from moving the Taluk

Land Board.

The learned counsel seeks an observation reserving his right to do so. Needless to state that if the petitioner has any such right, this order will not take away such right.

P.R. RAMAN,
(JUDGE)
